CLERGY VOICE

Dear Friends,

I am sure it sounds a bit cliché, but one of my favorite new hobbies is watching Fred eat.

I enjoy seeing how his mind works as he decides which blueberry to eat or which piece of toast he wants next. Once he decides, he confidently picks up his food and carefully places it in his mouth. I love observing as he decides it is time to drink water and grabs his sippy cup. It is always an adventure attempting to guess which food he is in the mood for at any given meal – and what will end up on the floor if I am not carefully watching.

It is a privilege for Mike and me to watch Fred's personality emerge – as well as his likes and dislikes – without worry that we might not be able to provide him his next meal. Yet, for many families in our community, this is a daily concern that is all too easy for the rest of us to take for granted.

For the past 25 years, Temple Israel has worked to address this disparity here in Minneapolis. As many of you know, Jefferson Community School, a K-8 public school neighboring Temple in Uptown, is one of the poorest schools in Minnesota – the percentage of students on subsidized lunch plans at Jefferson is staggering. Through reading to these children and working with them one-on-one to hone other skills, many Temple congregants have built relationships with these students and their families. Many of the Jefferson parents are constantly worried about their children's nutrition, especially during breaks from school. This is one of the many reasons why we asked Jefferson school to partner with us for Meals on Wheels.

This is our third year partnering with Jefferson to ensure that these families have delicious food on their tables come Thanksgiving Day. We are excited for the families from both Jefferson and Temple to again be able to wish one another well during this festive time of giving thanks.

I hope you will join us to package food or deliver meals on Thanksgiving for the 26th annual Stephan Larsen Wolf Meals on Wheels program (read more about Meals on Wheels on page 5). It's a wonderful way to honor Stephan's memory and his passion for social justice while showing gratitude for the blessings in our lives.

B'virkat Shalom – With Blessings of Peace,

Rabbi Jennifer S.G. Hartman

Remembering Stephan Larsen Wolf November 22, 1971 – December 23, 1992

Stephan Larsen Wolf was idealistic, motivated and committed to tikkun olam—repairing the world. A Temple Israel member from birth, he was guided by Jewish teachings and loved his family, friends, and community. Tragically, he died in a car accident at age 21. Just a month before his death, he penned these very powerful words in his journal:

“Jewish teachings dictate that one is never really dead unless all but forgotten. My belief, and consequently my advice, is to live forever. Leave your mark! Be remembered as one who has accomplished great things. Ensure that your spirit lives on in the hearts, souls and minds of all those that shall follow.”

In 1978, the TIPTY (Temple Israel Program for Temple Youth) Meals on Wheels program was started with the help of Jane Ketrosier and Sheila Schuman. In 1993, Anne and Allen Wolf chose to honor the memory of their son by establishing the Stephan Larsen Wolf Meals on Wheels Fund at Temple Israel and sponsoring the Thanksgiving Meals on Wheels program in his memory. Today, 400 meals are prepared, packaged and delivered on Thanksgiving morning each year.

“It has been said by many that Stephan would be proud to know about this important project that the congregation is doing, and he would be smiling,” said his father, Allen Wolf.

We remember Stephan and honor his memory by gathering as a community for this worthy cause. Please join us.

ABBY KIRSHBAUM

We are excited that Abby Kirshbaum has become Temple Israel's Director of Youth & Camping. In her new position, Abby will serve as the Director of Camp TEKO and continue to oversee camp and youth programming year-round as we broaden the ways we serve middle and high school learners. Abby has connected with so many of our families through her work with our youth. We are thrilled that she has taken on this new role. Abby and Rabbi Klein have already started planning for the rest of the school year and summer 2019, and they look forward to building on Temple's great traditions.

THE ANNUAL FUND FOR TEMPLE ISRAEL

Dear Friends,

During the course of a year at Temple Israel, we welcome new babies, say goodbye to loved ones, and rejoice with couples under the chuppah. We participate in acts of lovingkindness, discuss Jewish wisdom, engage new leadership, and inspire learners of all ages.

Temple Israel's 140th anniversary gives us an opportunity to look at our collective history as a source of pride and our future as a source of inspiration. In nearly six generations, we have accomplished a remarkable amount together. We've built and rebuilt everything from educational programs to physical infrastructure. We've been a strong voice in the Jewish community, leading the charge in times of social change. We've grown our presence in, and our service to, the Minneapolis community. We've been resolute and resilient. We have thrived.

We've been able to do all these things and more because you give through Temple - to our community. With this in mind, we're excited to announce the launch of a new way for you to touch the lives of those in need - the Annual Fund for Temple Israel.

Through the Annual Fund you'll give Adam, a third grader, the Jewish education he wouldn't otherwise receive. You'll give Izzy, a fifth grader, the "best summer ever!" at Camp TEKO. You'll contribute to enriching programming for our senior members, whose wisdom and support have made Temple what it is today. You'll enable us, your clergy, to create warm and inclusive Shabbat experiences for our community each week - and to be there for you whenever and wherever you need us most.

Please accept my deepest gratitude for your participation in the launch of our new Annual Fund. I view it as a celebration of our history and a pathway to an even more vibrant future.

B'virkat Shalom - With Blessings of Peace,

Rabbi Marcia A. Zimmerman
Alvin & June Perlman Senior Rabbinic Chair

RABBI ZIMMERMAN

Annual dues at Temple Israel cover only 44% of our annual budget.

Your generosity provides the additional funds we need to remain welcoming, innovative, and vital. We've been able to do what we do because you give through Temple - to our community. Your help is critical in both closing that gap and fulfilling our vision of being a world leader of innovative Jewish community.

How Can I Participate in the Annual Fund?

- Send in a donation with the envelope enclosed in the Annual Fund mailing
- Put a pledge on your account and pay a little each month, or in the month you prefer
- Request a grant be sent from your donor-advised fund or family foundation
- Go online to templeisrael.com/donate and select Annual Fund for Temple Israel in the drop-down menu

Thank you for your generosity and your meaningful gift.

Please feel free to contact Rachel Schachter, Director of Advancement, with any questions on the fund and how to give, at 612-374-0302 or rschachter@templeisrael.com.

First Weeks of JEWL Welcome back, Learners!

We have had a busy and meaningful beginning to our year in JEWL! Late September and October marked our first days of programming for all grades, Consecration, and Simchat Torah. Thank you to all who participated and helped us kick off another great year of lifelong learning.
